

Dear FCC,

TV broadcasts already carry broadcaster's logos. This prevents illegal use of the content by average consumers. Why add additional restrictions which will only restrict fair use by law abiding citizens, while doing little to combat true piracy?

I strongly oppose rules that restrict fair use.

Sincerely,

Andre Williamson